

BACK TO SCHOOL WITH DAD

Please tear here -- Sila ceritakan di sini

Dear Dads,

We encourage you to make an effort to send your children to school, at least for the first 2 days of the school year. Whether your child is starting or returning to school, your presence is special and reassuring.

Make a difference this year, by surprising your child with a hand-written note from you to encourage and affirm them. Write a note using the card attached and secretly slip it in your child's bag or lunch box. It will be a pleasant surprise for your child to read the card in school or during recess.

You may also consider including a small gift or their favourite snack. If you are in need of more idea, ask Mum for help.
